- Slides and recordings in English and Spanish will be shared via email later this week and will be uploaded on IDP's website.

A note on language: for our training, we are using "noncitizen" to refer to people in the U.S. who are not U.S. citizens. We may use the word "raids" and "arrests" interchangeably as well as ICE agent and officer.

Who We Are

The Immigrant Defense Project fights to protect and expand the rights of all immigrants, with a particular focus on immigrants accused or convicted of crimes. We've spent over a decade monitoring ICE policing and community arrests in the New York area.

The Surveillance Resistance Lab investigates and makes visible the often obfuscated ways in which tech-fueled governance increases state and corporate power over our lives. We work with movement partners to nurture and accumulate the power of organizing and resistance—locally and transnationally.

Make the Road New York is a membership organization and legal service provider in the New York City area that builds the power of immigrant and working class communities to achieve dignity and justice.

Agenda & Goals

- Overview of risk assessment
- Political context of US immigration system
- ICE policing, surveillance technologies, and past tactics in raids
- Know Your Rights information in certain settings
- Ways to plug in and fight back

^{*}This is a train-the-trainer model so there will be a lot of context provided intended to provide foundation for when you give Know Your Rights trainings in your communities *

Not Everyone Faces the Same Risk

- Not all immigrants are vulnerable to deportation.
- Most people have the right to have their case heard before an immigration judge before being deported.
 - Exceptions: existing removal order, Visa Waiver entry.
- There are many types of immigration statuses protect against deportation for a temporary period (e.g. DACA, TPS, DALE).
- Lawful Permanent Resident status cannot be taken away without a reason - usually criminal convictions - and removal proceedings.

UNDER THE LAW, WHO CAN BE DEPORTED?

People without lawful immigration status

People with lawful immigration status who have certain criminal convictions

People present in the U.S. after being ordered removed

- Overstayed a visa
- Walked across a border
- Arrived by boat

- Green card holders (LPRs)
- Asylees
- Individuals on valid visas (student, work)
- -Individuals with TPS, U/T visas
- -DACA

- Post-final order (PFO)
- Has a deportation order

Who is at the highest risk of ICE arrest and/or detention?

Among people vulnerable to deportation, those at the highest risk for ICE arrest and detention:

- People who have a deportation order.
- People who have been arrested for criminal offenses.

ICE will likely announce its priorities in January 2025.

Important Advice for Everyone

- Know your A number.
- Keep all documents.
- Check the EOIR portal online or by phone (1-800-898-7180)
- Keep your address updated with the court or USCIS if you have a pending case or application.

Understand the importance of attending Immigration court.

Difference between ICE check-in and immigration court

ICE is the agency that detains and deports people.

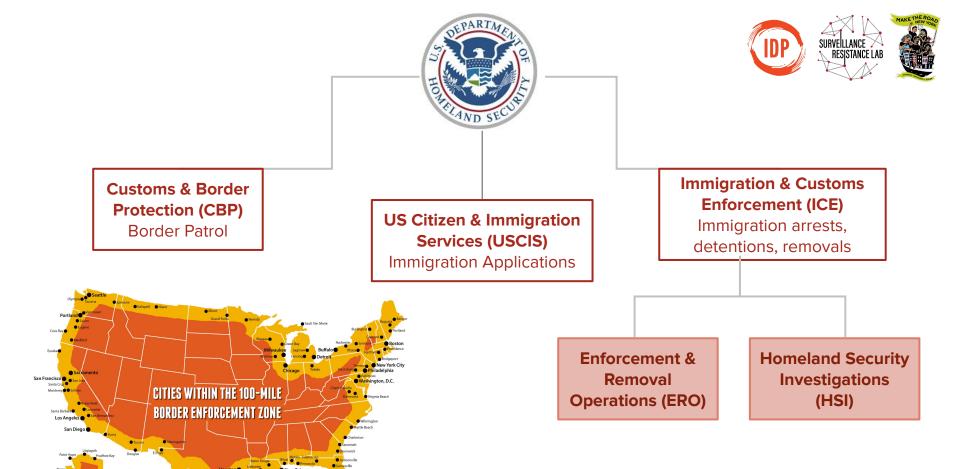

- ICE handles check-in appointments.
- ICE is part of the Department of Homeland Security, often referred to as DHS.
- ICE does not tell the court when you move.
- If you miss a check-in, ICE may decide to look for you - but it will not result in a removal order.

Immigration court manages removal proceedings and court cases.

- Cases in immigration court are before a judge.
- Hearings before the immigration court are set by the court, not ICE. Notice is mailed by the court.
- The immigration court is part of the Department of Justice, also known as DOJ.
- If you miss court, you will be ordered removed (deported).

Trends of ICE arrests (raids)

- Part of giving a Know Your Rights presentation is understanding ICE arrest trends and tactics.
- The tactics shared are based on monitoring and analyzing ICE raids in the NY-area.
- We've seen an evolution of tactics in a decade + of tracking them, especially as people became more familiar with their rights and local cities have fought back.
- We expect shifts in tactics in the new administration. This is why tracking raids practice and organizing at the city & state level is so important.
- Contact local immigrant rights orgs for more local ICE raid tactics - as tactics shift with time, know what's happening in your area

Past tactics of ICE arrests at and inside homes

- Wait outside of homes early morning to see who lives there/their routines
- 1-2+ agents will often knock on the door and yell "Police!", may be 6-8 officers waiting outside
- Don't usually say that they are ICE
- Often push their way inside when a door is opened

ICE sightings in NYC 2020

Tactics of ICE arrests: ruses

- ICE agents don't identify themselves as ICE.
- They use "ruses" to mislead and lie about who they are.
- They may pretend to be local police in how they dress and what they say.
- They may wear colors similar to local police and vests that say "police"
- They often carry guns

IDP Primer on ICE ruses

Examples of ICE ruses at homes

ICE officers pretend to be local police officers

- Say they are investigating crime or that they need to speak to a person in the home or at the precinct
- Show a photo of a "suspect" to get information about people in the home
- Say that the person missed a court date and the officers need to talk to them outside

Other types of ruses

- Say they are looking to hire for construction work on a house
- Ask if anyone in the home would like to "discuss the bible"
- Coming to a workplace to ask for a specific barber

Past tactics of ICE arrest on the street or in public places

- Often waiting outside of people's homes as they leave for work or court
- Sometimes go to people's workplaces if they are public places (restaurant, etc.)
- Often call out people's name to confirm their identity

ICE agents usually dress in "plain clothes" and don't identify themselves before making an arrest

Past tactics of ICE arrests in cars

- ICE agents in unmarked cars stop vehicles they think are carrying noncitizens
- Often they have targeted for arrest someone they believe is in the car
- May question everyone in the car for ID
- Sometimes a local police or sheriff may stop a car and call ICE

Past tactics of ICE arrests at jails, courts, probation and parole offices

- ICE relies on local jails and prisons, police, and courts to turnover a noncitizen to them*
- May issue a "detainer" or request for the jail or police to hold someone in custody for ICE to arrest
- ICE makes arrest as the person is released from criminal custody. In some places, people are directly transferred from criminal custody to ICE custody.
- ICE working with probation* and parole offices to make arrests

^{*}some places, like NYC, have policies to limit this.

Past tactics of ICE arrests at ICE check-ins:

- Many people are under supervision by ICE, especially if they arrived in the past few years.
 - Some people report to ICE under an order of supervision or for a "check-in."
 - Others report to ISAP, which is more intensive supervision (e.g. uploading photo once a week, home visits, GPS monitor).
- ICE may detain people at normally scheduled check-in appointments or call them in via letter, phone or email.

Past tactics of ICE arrests in large-scale worksite raids

- Worksite raids under GW Bush were in Northeast and Midwest, under Trump 1.0 situated mostly in the Southeast and Midwest
- Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) agents led the raids they got judicial warrants for workplaces themselves.
- HSI collaborate with federal prosecutors to bring criminal charges against employers.
- HSI works with local law enforcement (police, highway patrol, national guard) to carry out raids
- Many agents present

NILC worksite raids mapping

FAQ: does ICE arrest people on the ground who they haven't targeted?

- Yes. ICE may also arrest witnesses who are present and vulnerable to deportation. ICE calls these "collateral" arrests.
- ICE needs reasonable suspicion that people are violating immigration law to detain or stop them -- that is why silence is important.
- ICE may identify people in real time through:
 - use of mobile fingerprint devices
 - through racial profiling and questions like asking "do you have papers?" or to see passports

Be Informed: Know Your Rights around ICE raids

Goals for rights-based information

- First part of training was to build some understanding about risk assessment, political context of US immigration system and ICE policing and surveillances tactics to equip you to share rights that people have during encounters with ICE.
- KYR training spaces are a way to provide individual rights-based information and to organize locally.
- You know your communities best, include the best way to share information.
- Tracking local trends of ICE arrests will be important to frame KYR information, especially as tactics are likely to shift including based on legal challenges.

STRATEGIES FOR GIVING A KYR TRAINING:

- Tailor the content to your audience.
- Contact and collaborate with local organizations & organizers, including immigrant rights organizations or public defenders.
- Discuss community defense strategies
- Be mindful that audience members may be dealing with past trauma from interactions with ICE or police.
- Create a plan for answering unexpected questions.
- Plan interactive activities to practice.

Key Takeaways

You have different rights depending on where you and your property are located

	Private	Public
Some Examples	 Homes Parts of workplaces only accessible to employees 	 Walking on the street Driving or riding in a car Parts of workplaces open to the public
General Rules	ICE needs a warrant from a judge or your consent to enter or search	ICE only needs reasonable suspicion to make an arrest
Notes	 Allowed to pat down above clothing for officer safety Plain view (because this is actually public) 	 Parts of cars like the trunk or glove box and "closed" property like bags and pockets are actually private and protected by the 4th Amd.

4th Amendment rights apply to everyone regardless of immigration status.

What are your rights at home?

Know Your Rights: Residences

Private houses

Apartments

Shelters

Supportive housing

Know Your Rights: Residences

The home includes curtilage: the area immediately surrounding a home where home-related activities take place

Examples:

- Area just outside a home entrance (e.g. doorstep)
- ☐ Garage or driveway
- Space or yard inside of a closed property fence or gate (especially if locked!)
- Hallways inside of apartment buildings

^{}ICE must leave if they don't have a warrant AND you tell them they can't be there.

Key Points: ICE AT YOUR HOME

THINK:

- NO INFO
- NO ENTRY
- NO SEARCH

- 1. Don't open the door. Ask ICE to leave.
- 2. Identify who you are talking to: ask for ID and a warrant.
- 3. If officers are inside, ask ICE to leave.
- 4. Don't give ICE documents or information.
- 5. Tell them you don't want them to search.
- ★ These rights apply to everyone regardless of your immigration status.

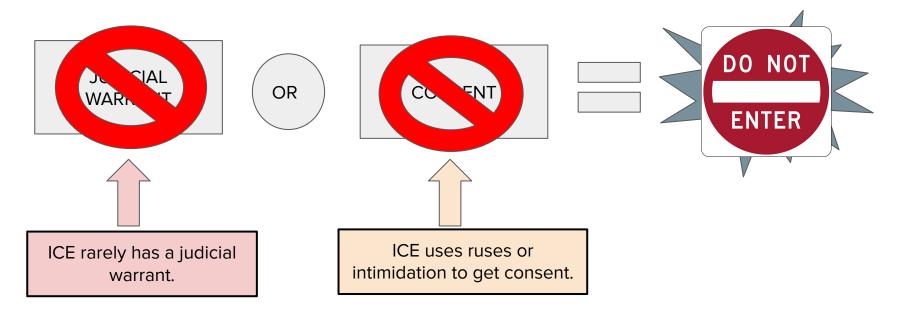

ICE officers are trained to lie to enter homes without a judicial warrant.

You have the right not to open the door

- All conversations can be had with a closed door
- If you open your door a crack, ICE may push their way in even though this is not consent for them to enter.

Identify who is at your door

BEFORE opening the door or answering questions:

- → Ask to see their badge
- → Ask them for their name and to slide a card under the door.
- → Ask: ARE YOU NYPD (or local police)?
- → Ask them what specific precinct they work at
- → Ask them if they have a warrant and to slide a warrant under the door. Take a photo of it!

Immigration warrant = no entry

- ICE typically doesn't have a warrant signed by a judge.
- They usually have a document signed by an ICE supervisor that has the word "warrant" written on it.
- Administrative ICE warrants do not permit ICE to enter or search a home

If ICE is at your Door

e a warrant that

If you identify ICE at your door and they don't have a warrant that gives them permission to enter, you can ask them to leave without opening the door.

Everyone can repeat these phrases in their best language:

- → I DO NOT WANT TO TALK TO YOU
- → I DO NOT WANT TO ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS
- → I DO NOT GIVE YOU PERMISSION TO COME INSIDE
- → PLEASE LEAVE A CARD WITH YOUR NAME AND NUMBER
- → I DO NOT WANT TO SPEAK TO YOU; PLEASE LEAVE

If ICE Ignores Your Rights

If ICE agents force their way into a home or search without consent, you can still say that you don't consent.

Everyone can repeat these phrases in their best language:

- → I DO NOT CONSENT TO YOU BEING IN MY HOME. PLEASE LEAVE.
- I DO NOT CONSENT TO THIS SEARCH.
- I DO NOT WANT TO GIVE YOU ANY DOCUMENTS.

What are your rights in public?

Know Your Rights: In Public Places

On the street

In public places in workplaces

At probation/parole

At courthouses

Driving or riding in a car

Know Your Local Laws

The rights we are discussing today are nationwide.

Some places also have important local or state protections.

- New York State has statewide legislation called the Protect Our Courts Act, prohibiting ICE arrests in or around courthouses.
- New York City has laws protecting city property ICE should not be allowed to enter schools or shelters without a judicial warrant.

^{*} Unfortunately, we anticipate ICE will rescind its "sensitive places" guidance in place since 2011.

Key points: ICE IN PUBLIC

- THINK:
 NO INFO
 NO SEARCH
- 1. Ask if you are free to go.
- 2. Stay silent.
- 3. Don't give false or foreign documents.
- 4. Don't give them permission to search.

★ These rights apply to everyone regardless of your immigration status.

Know Your Rights: In Public Places

Important Points:

- ICE doesn't need a judicial warrant to arrest someone in public or to stop a car.
- But ICE does need reasonable suspicion to believe people are here in violation of immigration law - which is why silence is important.
- ICE usually knows the person they are targeting but others nearby may be at risk at the same time.
- ICE sometimes collects information or fingerprints from other people who are near an arrest.

What if ICE asks for my name in public?

Everyone has a right to remain silent whenever ANY officer asks questions (ICE, local police, FBI, etc.).

Some tips on how to handle being asked for your name by an officer:

- 1. Identify who is questioning you (ICE, local police, FBI, etc.).
- Assess whether refusing to give your name will be used by ICE to escalate the situation
- 3. Assert your right to remain silent if that feels the safest in the moment.
 - → I AM INVOKING MY RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT. I DO NOT WANT TO ANSWER QUESTIONS.

Remember: DON'T lie to law enforcement or give false documents

What if ICE asks for my ID in public?

- Ask if you are free to go. If they say yes, leave.
- If they say no, invoke your right to remain silent.
- You can refuse to give your ID to ICE.*

SAY: I DO NOT WANT TO GIVE YOU MY DOCUMENTS.

Assess your safety. If you feel forced to show ID, consider whether you have a valid ID that does not say your place of birth or immigration status.

REMEMBER: Never give false documents!

*Some states require you to show ID to local police. Check what the laws are in your state.

What should I do if ICE stops my car?

These slides cover car stops by ICE, not by CBP.

For more resources on CBP checkpoints and car stops:

- ACLU's Know Your Rights with Border Patrol infographic and FAQ, which explains more about CBP car stops
- Speak with local immigrant rights organizations for specific rights-based advice and trends around CBP car stops in your area

What should I do if ICE stops my car?

ICE does not need a judicial warrant to stop a car.

But it's not always clear WHO pulling over your car with sirens or lights. Pull over and ask questions to find out if the officers are ICE and why they stopped you.

- "ARE YOU THE POLICE?"
- "ARE YOU HIGHWAY PATROL?"
- "ARE YOU IMMIGRATION?"
- "WHY AM I BEING STOPPED?"

What should I do if ICE stops my car?

Assess the situation and your safety. ICE officers can sometimes be aggressive during a car stop, and might not wait for you to roll down the window or get out of the car.

They could try to open the door and break the window to pull someone out of the car or try to take fingerprints of everyone in the car.

What if ICE asks for my ID if I am in a car?

- If you are a driver:
 - ICE can demand your driver's license.
 - You still have the right to remain silent.
- If you are not a driver and are a passenger:
 - You have the right to remain silent
 - AND you can refuse to give an ID if ICE asks for it.*

SAY: I DO NOT CONSENT TO GIVING YOU MY DOCUMENTS.

IMPORTANT:

- DO NOT lie or show false or foreign documents.
- DO NOT answer any questions about your criminal or immigration history.

*This could be different in each state. Talk to your local immigrant rights organization or public defenders.

What if ICE asks for my fingerprints in public?

- ICE is only allowed to take fingerprints if they have reasonable suspicion you violated an immigration law or after they have arrested you.
- If you are not under arrest by ICE and they ask to take your fingerprints, ask: Why am I being fingerprinted?
- If they start to fingerprint you and you don't want them to, say:

→ I DO NOT CONSENT TO GIVING MY FINGERPRINTS

They may still take your fingerprints but you should repeat that you don't consent. It may help you in court.

If ICE stops me in public can they search my belongings?

ICE needs a judicial warrant or your consent to search your bag, inside your pockets, or the glove box or trunk of your car!

- ICE cannot search these things without a warrant or your consent. SAY:
 - → I DON'T CONSENT TO YOU SEARCHING ME.
- If officers search your belongings or your car, SAY:
 - → I DON'T CONSENT TO YOU SEARCHING MY BELONGINGS.
 - → I DON'T CONSENT TO YOUR SEARCHING MY CAR.

They may still search & claim it is for officer safety. You should repeat that you don't consent. It may help you in court.

What are your rights at work?

Know Your Rights: Businesses

Important Points:

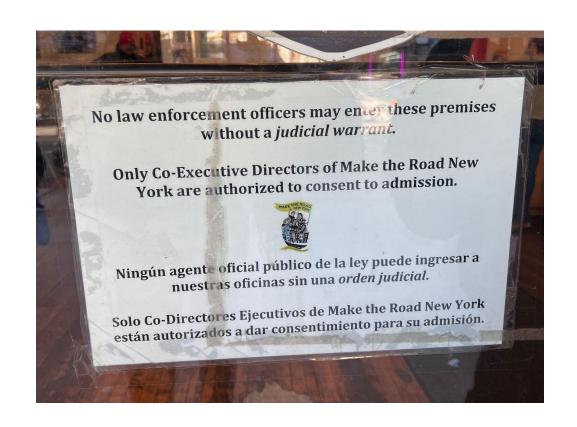

- ICE needs a judicial warrant or consent to enter private areas of a business.
 - Train staff not to talk to ICE or give consent.
 - Trying to escape can put people in danger and give ICE pretense to detain them.
- Employers do not have to help ICE to identify or sort workers.

What to do if you witness an ICE raid

Why should I document an ICE raid?

- You could help the person's legal case by video recording or writing down details, even if you do not know the person being arrested.
- This may help track trends of local ICE practices
- Share this info responsibly with a trusted immigrant rights group in your community.
- Considerations about sharing on social media:
 - Try to verify information before putting it out in public
 - Do not share unverified raids on social media
 - DRUM published a guide to sharing raids on social media. This is from 2017 but still very useful resource.

Be Safe While Recording a Raid

- You can film ICE as long as you don't "interfere" with their "duties" and don't do it in secret.
- REMEMBER: It could be dangerous to run to get a phone or reach into your pocket. Be aware of the physical safety of everyone involved.
- You can document a raid by taking a photo or by writing down what you witnessed after the fact.
- If ICE officers ask you to hand over your phone, don't physically resist them.
 - SAY: I DON'T CONSENT TO GIVING YOU MY PHONE. I DON'T CONSENT TO A SEARCH OF MY PHONE.

What do I need to document?

Regardless of whether you take a video, photo, or write down what you witnessed, it's helpful to document the following information:

- Where and when was the encounter with ICE?
- How did ICE officers present themselves?
 - Pretend to be police? Refused to identify themselves? How many officers?
- What did the ICE officers say?
 - Lied to enter the home, intimidated anyone, or used verbal/physical force?
- Was consent given?
 - ICE officers' reaction if not given consent to enter/search
