

Immigrant Defense Project Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy describes our policies and procedures on the collection, use and disclosure of your information when you register for an “IDP event” (a training, presentation, or other event hosted or co-hosted or sponsored or co-sponsored by the Immigrant Defense Project). Note that when registering for an event, you may be directed to third-party service providers such as Zoom, Zoho Forms, or Stripe which also collect personal information. These service providers also have privacy policies governing how they collect and use your personal information. We use your personal data to provide and improve our services. By registering, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

What personal information we collect and how:

When you register for an event we may ask you to provide personally identifiable information that can be used to contact or identify you. Personally identifiable information may include: ●
Email address

- First name and last name
- Job title

How the collected personal information is used:

We may use your personal information for the following purposes:

- To communicate information related to the event, such as how to access the event virtually, materials provided as part of the event, or how to get a certificate of completion for CLE or other purposes
- To manage your requests to us
- To analyze and improve our services, products, marketing, and your experience ● To provide you with news and general information about the organization’s work, and other goods, services and events unless you have opted not to receive such information.

We may share your personal information with third parties, including but not limited to:

- Other event co-hosts or co-sponsors
- Third-party companies used to provide the event services

We will never sell your personal information.

Contact us at info@immdefense.org if you have questions about the Privacy Policy.
